MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Public Affairs
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Questions by John Scali re Paisley

After the Issues and Answers program, but before we left the platform, John Scali asked me a number of questions about Paisley. I answered all the specific ones I could [redacted]

He then raised the question of a friend of Paisley's who had a yacht; who was investigating Paisley's death; who is a former Air Force intelligence officer; and who disappeared mysteriously to Australia. He said this came out of the Szulc article. I didn't recall that part of it. I said I suspected the Air Force intelligence connection was from World War II.
